

Update 1, October 2022: Parish Discernment sessions registration details

As Holy Family parishioners you are warmly invited to sign up to one discernment session of 8 - 15 people to learn more about Take the Way of the Gospel (TWG) and what this means for our parish in the future. During this time, you are encouraged to share your feedback about the opportunities and challenges of this change and listen to the thoughts of others. Your feedback is vital as we move forward to represent our parish community and listen to the representations of other parish communities.

Lindsay Sant will be running each discernment session to listen to and collect your responses. There will be eight sessions available during October and November 2022 and further opportunities if needed. Registration is available through the piety stall at the parish after the Saturday 6.30pm and Sunday 9.30am and 11am Masses. The available discernment session dates and times are:
